Summary

Frontend developer with a strong foundation in the creation of responsive, accessible, and performance web applications. Have experience in building landing pages, educational platforms, and dashboards that boost engagement and outcomes. Ensure efficient integration between the frontend and backend services, with a focus on performance, and reduce the loading time. I have a passion for clean architecture, continuous learning, and contribution to innovative development teams.

Experience

Frontend Developer, eCampusJo – Freelance Jan 2025 – Jul 2025
